

Others

*Lord, help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for "Others."*

*Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true,
And know, that all I do for You
Must needs be done for "Others."*

*And when my work on earth is done,
And my new work in Heaven's begun,
May I forget the crown I've won,
While thinking still of "Others."*

*"Others." Lord, yes, "Others!"
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live for Thee.*

Relieved

*I visited the altar rail
Tonight, when I was blue
And everything seemed wrong to me,
Until I came to You.*

*A cross I had throughout the day,
My path, a shadow crossed;
A thing of grief had saddened me
And peace of mind I'd lost.*

*I went to Christ and knelt with Him
And begged His precious care,
And then my cross the lighter grew.
It was easier to bear.*

*I left it at the altar rail
Just as I came away,
And now my soul is happy,
My heart is light and gay.*

*The grief and sorrow that was mine
No more my peace will stay;
I left them at the altar rail
Just as I came away.*

Friendship

*A friend is like a tower strong,
A friend is like a joyous song
That helps us on our way.
When golden ties of friendship bind*

The heart to heart, the mind to mind,

How fortunate are we!

*For friendship is a noble thing;
It soars past death on angel's wing
Into eternity.*

*God blesses friendship's holy bond
Both here and in the great beyond:
A benefit unpriced.*

Then may we know that wondrous joy,

*That precious ore without alloy;
A friendship based on Christ.*
